Obituary

(SAMPLE)

John D. Smith, son of the late James S. and Mary Smith, was born on January 2, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 3, _____ after a lengthy illness.

He received his education at Blake High School in Baltimore. At the age of nineteen, he became employed by Northeastern Company on a part-time basis while he attended school. Upon completion of his education, he became a full-time employee of this company for thirty years, interrupted only by serving four years in the United States Navy from 1955-1957. He was a lifelong member of Central Baptist Church.

He married the former Ann Brown, and out of this union two children were born, Joseph and Susan.

John made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Ann B. Smith; one son, Joseph D. Smith; one daughter, Susan A. Smith; one sister, Mrs. Addie Green; a mother-in-law, one brother-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
